

Ref.: PUNHFVF972

Price: 2.500.000 €

City: Puntiro

Historic mill tower possession with winery

This unique property, hundreds of years old, takes you into a world of Mallorcan history. Less than 10 minutes by car from the center of the island metropolis, it impresses with its authentic character and offers a wide-ranging investment opportunity with various options. The property consists of 6 different buildings, including the main residential building with its old winery and the residential annex including garage. The latter used to be the mill tower, which was used to extract and supply water from its own well. The second mill tower is used as a dairy building. Within the group of buildings you will find a Moorish wood stove and a private pond. As a prominent golfer, you will find fulfillment on the various golf courses in the vicinity. Enjoy the pulsating flair of the Mediterranean metropolis of Palma with its popular old town district of Santa Catalina, the Paseo Marítimo with its marina and the multitude of prominent restaurants and cafés.

Ref.: PUNHFVF972

