Charming town house with fountain and sunny roof terrace

The charming and lovingly designed town house offers an enchanting living ambience with its 5 bedrooms, Bodega wine cellar, fountain, fireplace, small 10 m2 patio and a 20 m2 sun roof terrace.

When you enter the house, you will be typically welcome Mallorquin in a great entrance.

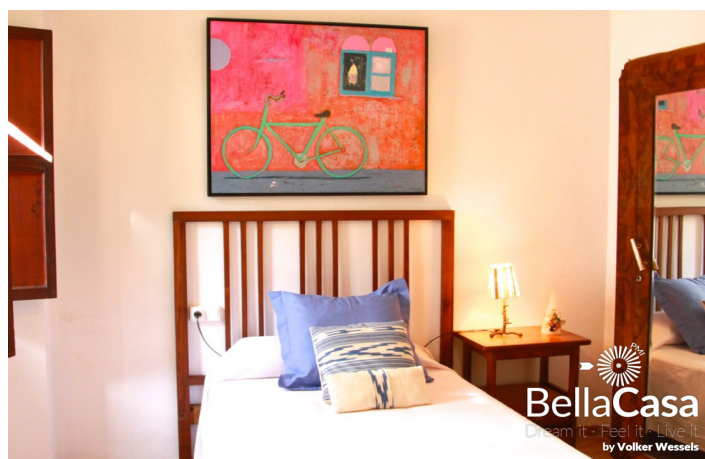

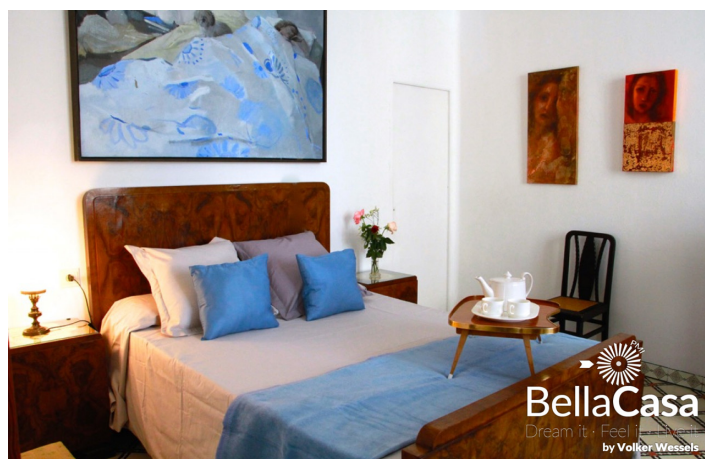

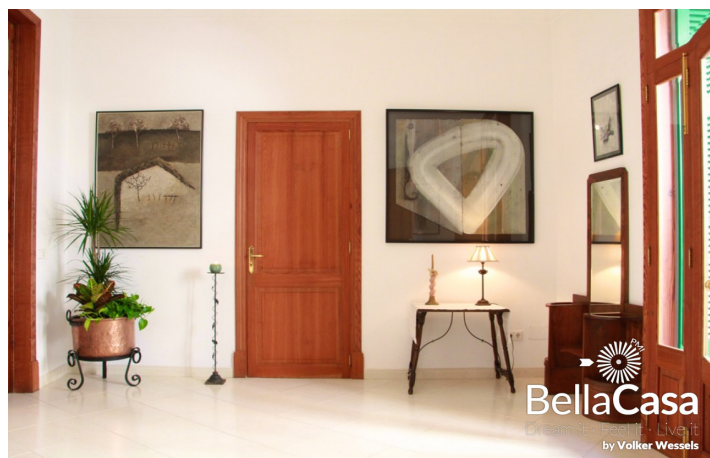

The town house is striking through its imposing ceiling height with light -fitting windows, through its winding staircase and its many ancient elements.

You not only enjoy the sun on the roof terrace, but also catch a clear view of the stars.

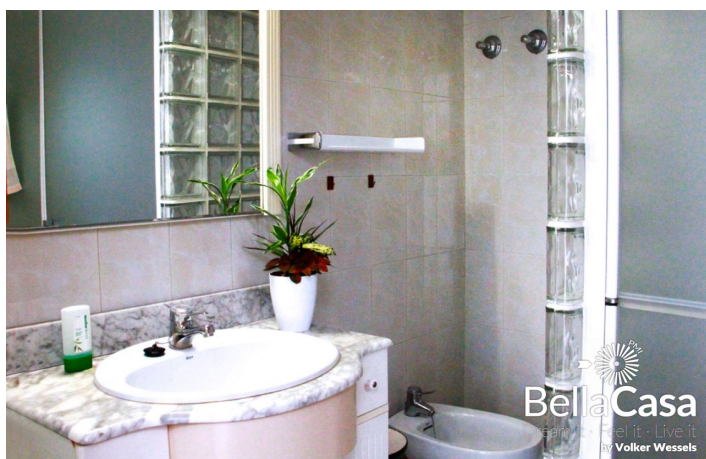

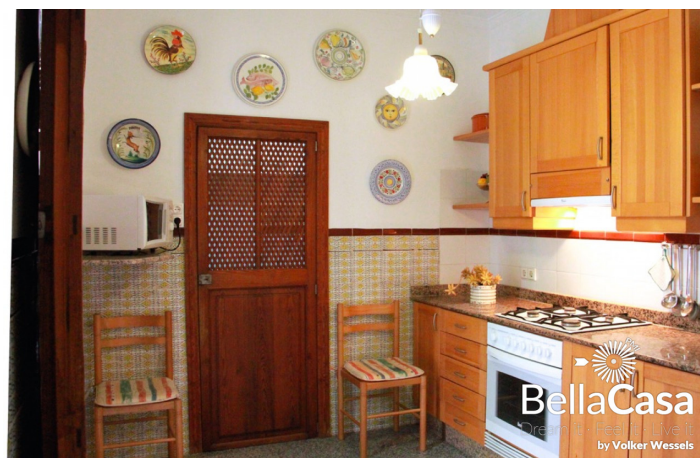

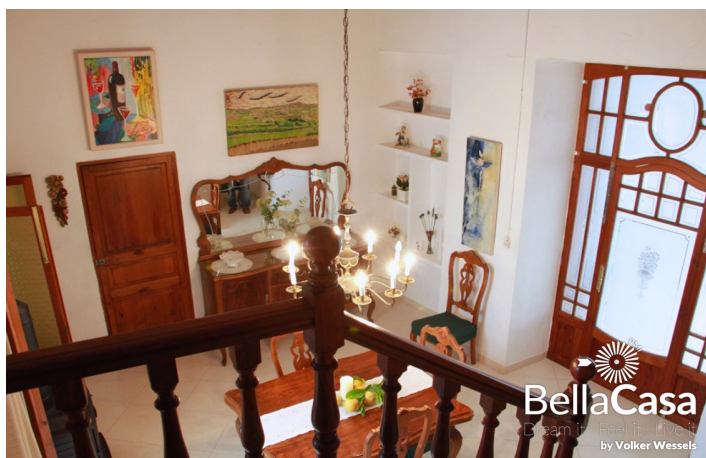

In the lively and mallorcan 5,500 inhabitants village of Porreres you will find various small shops and an inviting marketplace with its typical bars and restaurants just around the corner.

It is only 20 minutes to the island metropolis of Palma with its world -famous cathedral, old town and international airport on the island.
